

Fox Hollow at Cobblefield
12 Cobblefield Drive
Bernardsville, New Jersey

Located in the heart of the Morristown National Historical Park system, Cobblefield Drive and the surrounding area of over 1,200 acres of wooded trails follow gentle grades along wooded roads and is a nature lover's paradise!

The Sherman-Hoffman Sanctuaries is located around the corner on Hardscrabble Road and the Cross Estate Gardens, part of the New Jersey Historical Garden Foundation is located on Jockey Hollow Road, minutes away.

Tucked away along the headwaters of the Passaic River, the Cross Estate Gardens go back to the earlier part of the 20th Century when wealthy people built grand country mansions as summer retreats in the Somerset Hills "Mountain Colony" of Bernardsville. Its gardens and buildings provide a glimpse of a lifestyle that is of a bygone era.

The Sherman Hoffman Wildlife Sanctuary in Bernardsville had a donation of 125 acre by the Sherman family to the New Jersey Audubon Society. Added to this, the Hoffman's donated land which now completes 276 acres of woodlands, fields and natural habitat supporting over 60 species of nesting birds and over 175 species have been sighted at this Sanctuary.

Totalling over 2500 acres within this park system, you may enjoy peace and harmony and remain minutes from NYC transportation, fine dining and wonderful shopping.

Bernardsville is the "best kept secret" enclave that is less than one hour away from vibrant Manhattan. Numerous activities are at the town's beckon such as: biking along the rolling hills of Somerset and Morris counties, canoeing along the Passaic River, hiking in the Watchung mountain reservation or exercising at the state of the art Somerset Hills YMCA. Commuting into the city for leisure or business via train or bus is very convenient with train and bus stations within 7 minutes driving distance.

Education standards are high as the students perform very well at the high school level. Shopping is a short distance away, with major malls, Short Hills and Bridgewater, within 20 minutes driving, while the convenience of groceries, charming shops, restaurants and movies are nearby.

The township and neighboring towns host some of the finest restaurants in New Jersey. Extremely close for you to enjoy and experience everything Bernardsville has to offer!
