

E.1 Criterion A – Special Element – Promotion "Prettiest Home Yards" 1928 (Courtesy Priscilla Berge)

8-19-28

THE SAN DIEGO UNION, SUNDAY, AUG. 19, 1928

DEVELOPERS OF KENSINGTON HEIGHTS TRACT TO GIVE PRIZES FOR PRETTIEST HOME YARDS

Three of the most beautiful yards in Kensington Heights which are certain entries in the proposed new prize contest for the tract's best yard.

To encourage beautiful yards, the Kensington Heights developers have announced a contest for the prettiest home yards in the tract. The contest will be held in the fall and the prizes awarded to the winners will be in the form of cash and prizes. The contest is open to all owners of homes in the tract and the prizes will be awarded to the winners in the fall. The contest is a very important one and it is hoped that many of the owners will enter their yards in the contest. The contest is a very important one and it is hoped that many of the owners will enter their yards in the contest.

Letter to every tract resident who is interested in the contest. For example, if a yard is entered in the contest, the owner will receive a certificate of appreciation. The contest is a very important one and it is hoped that many of the owners will enter their yards in the contest. The contest is a very important one and it is hoped that many of the owners will enter their yards in the contest.

TO HONORARY POOL
NEW YORK, Aug. 18 (AP)—About 100,000 people gathered Sunday for the opening of the new pool at the Waldorf-Astoria. The pool is the largest in the city and is one of the most beautiful. The pool is a very important one and it is hoped that many of the owners will enter their yards in the contest. The contest is a very important one and it is hoped that many of the owners will enter their yards in the contest.

HOOVER AND SMITH FOR HOME OWNERS

With 1928 the 10-year anniversary of the Federal Reserve Act, it is well to look back on the progress of the United States since that time. The Federal Reserve Act was a landmark in the history of the United States and it has done much to help the country. The Federal Reserve Act was a landmark in the history of the United States and it has done much to help the country. The Federal Reserve Act was a landmark in the history of the United States and it has done much to help the country.

Up to Private Funds to P. America's History

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 18 (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board today announced that it will accept an offer of $100,000,000 in private funds to help the government. The offer is for the purchase of government bonds and it is hoped that many of the owners will enter their yards in the contest. The contest is a very important one and it is hoped that many of the owners will enter their yards in the contest.

THE SAN DIEGO UNION, SUNDAY, AUG. 19, 1928